Danvers Norfolk County State of Mass
Dec 21st 1860

To J. G. Kennedy

Dear Sir

In answer to yours of the eighteenth wishing me to say whether the figures are correct or to explain. I do not know fully your meaning but presume you have reference to the apparent discrepancy in account of acres, in one place, being valued more than in another, in the same town or village.
All I can say is that the figures set against those lines are the response of those interrogated or from the best information that could be obtained, and I think are correct, the location making the difference. For instance an acre of land in the heart of a village may be worth 6000 an hundred situated a mile or two from that village worth not more than 500 it is so in this section. I have done my best to get the true value of the farms and think the figures are correct.

Yours Respectfully Luther F. Thayer
Asst. Marshal
